2024/623 - Names of Officers online

In response to your recent request for information regarding;

Please can you let me know how long the FULL names of officers (PC and PCSO) in the Rhyl Neighbourhood policing team have been online on the North Wales Police Website. And how many page views has that part of the website had in that time. If possible can this data be broken down into individual officers.

The 'Your Area' section on our website was adopted in February 2023. It included officer name, location and Welsh language level for all areas across North Wales at launch and has been maintained since.

We do not have the statistics for page views.
