2025/1056 - Palestine Action marches

In response to your recent request for information regarding;

Although excess cost removed the forces obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

1. How many times were counter-terrorism officers deployed to Palestine Action marches in the past year?

North Wales Police have not sent any counter-terrorism officers to Palestine Action marches in the past year.

2. Prior to the UK Government proscribing Palestine Action, had your force assessed it as meeting the threshold for counter-terrorism action in Wales?

North Wales Police do not hold any information.

3. How many individuals have been arrested or imprisoned due to their association with, membership in, or attendance at Palestine Action marches?

4. What specific charges were brought against these individuals?

Our information is set up and searchable for our policing purposes. To obtain the information in the format you have requested would involve manually reviewing each record on our force system. The cost of providing you with the information is above the amount to which we are legally required to respond i.e. the cost of retrieving the information exceeds the 'appropriate level' as stated in the Freedom of Information (FOI) Fees and Appropriate Limit regulations 2004.

Therefore, in accordance with the FOI Act 2000 the information you have requested is exempt under Section 12 (1), and this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under section 17 (5) of the legislation.

THIS INFORMATION HAS BEEN PROVIDED IN RESPONSE TO A REQUEST
UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000, AND IS CORRECT AS AT 24/10/2025
