2025/118 - 'Community Remedy - Juvenile offenders

Although excess cost removed the forces obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

In response to your recent request for information regarding;

1. How many cases did you have in the 2024 calendar year where a crime was resolved when the offender was identified, aged under 18, and agreed to a Community Resolution, where there was a Community Remedy such as a local rehabilitative or diversionary activity?

2. For those cases referenced in Q.1 provide a table show the type of local rehabilitative or diversionary activity and then the number of people that have accepted that course of action and the offence that they had admitted to.

So for example the answers might state:

Total number 100.

Painting park benches 50 (40 criminal damage, 10 possession of cannabis) Building bird boxes 50 (50 assault cases)

3. For each type of activity could you please provide me with any resource that you hold that is provided to either the crime victim or the person who will embark on the activity that explains exactly what the activity is and how they are expected to complete it.
