

Dyddiad Ymateb: 10/12/2025

2025/1234 – Eglwysi Cristnogol

Er bod cost dros ben wedi dileu rhwymedigaethau'r heddlu o dan y Ddeddf Rhyddid Gwybodaeth, fel arwydd o ewylllys da, rwyf wedi darparu gwybodaeth, mewn perthynas â'ch cais, wedi'i chasglu neu ar gael cyn sylweddoli y byddai'r terfyn ffioedd yn mynd tu hwnt. Rwyf yn credu bod hyn yn ddefnyddiol, ond nid yw'n effeithio ar ein hawl gyfreithiol i ddibynnu ar y rheoliadau ffioedd ar gyfer gweddill eich cais.

Mewn ymateb i'ch cais diweddar am wybodaeth yn ymwneud â;

CAIS 1:

-----
Beth hoffech chi ei wybod?: A wnewch chi os gwelwch chi'n dda ddarparu'r wybodaeth ganlynol yn unol a thelerau'r Freedom of Information Act 2000:

nifer blynyddol y troseddau a adroddwyd yn neu ger eglwysi a chapeli Cristnogol yn ardal Heddlu Gogledd Cymru ers y 1af o Ionawr 2020.

A wnewch chi os gwelwch chi'n dda ddarparu enw'r dref neu'r pentref ym mhob achos, ynghyd a math o drosedd yn unol a'r categorïau swyddogol.

Troseddau 2010-2024 hefo is-deip lleoliad – eglwys/adeilad crefyddol neu fynwent neu chwiliad KW o grynodedb yn cyfateb i "eglwys", "capel", "mynwent eglwys", "mynwent" neu "fan addoli Cristnogol".

Gweler ynghlwm.

Sylwer: nid ydym yn dal a ydy'r rhain yn benodol yn 'eglwysi a chapeli Cristnogol'.

CAIS 2:

-----
Yn gwneud Gogledd Cymru'r lle mwyaf diogel i fyw, gweithio ac ymweld yn y DU Making North Wales the safest place to live, work and visit in the UK

Beth hoffech chi ei wybod?: A wnewch chi os gwelwch chi'n dda ddarparu'r wybodaeth ganlynol yn unol a thelerau'r Freedom of Information Act 2000 (os nad yw hyn yn arwain at fynd heibio'r terfyn amser a roddir yn y ddeddf, gan fy mod eisoes wedi gwneud Cais Rhif 1. A wnewch chi flaenoriaethu Cais Rhif 1 os fyddai gweithio hefyd ar Gais Rhif 2 yn ormod.)

Nifer blynyddol y troseddau a adroddwyd yn neu ger eglwysi a chapeli Cristnogol a lleoliadau addoliad eraill, ac hefyd elusennau yn ardal Heddlu Gogledd Cymru, a dargedwyd am eu bod yn gweithio gyda cheiswyr lloches a ffoaduriaid, ers y 24ain o Fehefin 2016.

Mae ein gwybodaeth wedi'i gosod ac yn chwiliadwy at ein dibenion plismona. Byddai cael y wybodaeth yn y fformat rydych wedi gofyn amdano yn golygu adolygu pob cofnod ar system yr heddlu. Yn gyntaf, byddai'n rhaid i ni gynnal chwiliad am droseddau ar neu ar ôl 24/06/2016 hefo is-deip lleoliad – "eglwys/adeilad crefyddol" neu "mynwent" neu "siop elusen" neu wneud chwiliad gair allweddol o grynoded sy'n cyfateb i "eglwys", "capel", "elusen", ac yna gwirio bob cofnod i weld a oes unrhyw ddigwyddiadau yn berthnasol i'ch cais. Mae'r gost o ddarparu'r wybodaeth i chi yn uwch na'r swm y mae'n ofynnol yn gyfreithiol i ni ymateb iddo. Hynny ydy, mae'r gost o gasglu'r wybodaeth yn fwy na'r 'lefel briodol' fel y nodir yn rheoliadau Ffioedd Rhyddid Gwybodaeth (FOI) a Therfyn Priodol 2004.

Felly, yn unol â Deddf Rhyddid Gwybodaeth 2000, mae'r wybodaeth y gofynnwyd gennych wedi'i heithrio o dan Adran 12 (1), ac mae'r llythyr hwn yn gweithredu fel Hysbysiad Gwrthod o dan adran 17 (5) o'r ddeddfwriaeth.

MAE'R WYBODAETH WEDI CAEL EI GYFLWYNO MEWN YMATEB I GAIS O DAN
DDEDDF RHYDDID GWYBODAETH 2000, AC MAE'N GYWIR AR

03/12/2025

| Calendar Year | Offence Category Desc             | Location        | Location Subtype          | Occ. City/Town | Summary                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|---------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------|---------------------------|----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2020          | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | WREXHAM        | Unknown offenders have entered the church through an unlocked door. Once inside they have stolen a large bible and brass candlestick, as well as knocking over numerous items.             |
| 2020          | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | EWLOE          | Local youths have caused damage to the door of a local church, gained entry but nothing taken.                                                                                             |
| 2020          | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | COLWYN BAY     | Unknown offender(s) have gained access to an office at the location by forcing the door. An untidy search has been conducted, unclear if anything has been stolen.                         |
| 2020          | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | LLANBERIS      | Inft reporting unknown offender has entered the church during day time hours and has attempted to steal a money box which is attached to a door , they were unsuccessful on this occasion. |
| 2020          | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | NANT PERIS     | Inft reporting on behalf of the local church that unknown offender(s) have entered church during daytime hours which anyone can and has stolen a collection money box                      |
| 2020          | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | BAGILLT        | Suspect has taken a laptop from the location without permission. Staff followed the male and he threw the laptop away before making off.                                                   |
| 2020          | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | HOLYHEAD       | Inft wishing to report that unknown offenders have broken into the church at the location and have stolen an unknown amount of money.                                                      |
| 2020          | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | HOLYHEAD       | Unknown Suspects have gained entry to the location by smashing a window and they have stolen tools from within.                                                                            |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|--------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | CAERNARFON   | CALLER REPORTING A HIGH VALUE BURGLARY. SOUND SYSTEMS AND INSTRUMENTS TAKEN FROM THE CHAPEL.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | RHYL         | Male offender unknown has entered the vestry and removed cash from the open safe.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | MOLD         | u/k offender has entered an open Church and forced open a wooden cupboard which is used to collect charity money which is contained within a plastic box within the cupboard.                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | HAWARDEN     | UNKNOWN OFFENDERS HAVE GAINED ENTRY BY UNKNOWN MEANS AND HAVE STOLEN COPPER PIPING AND SEVERAL OTHER ITEMS FROM WITHIN.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Street/road               | WREXHAM      | UNKNOWN OFFENDER HAS STOLEN IP'S BICYCLE TYRE WHILST IT WAS LEFT UN ATTENDED OUTSIDE A LOCAL CHURCH. IP BELIEVES THE ATTEMPT WAS TO STEAL THE WHOLE BIKE BUT THEY WERE UNABLE TO.                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | WREXHAM      | UNKNOWN OFFENDER HAS FORCED ENTRY INTO THE LOC ADDRESS CAUSING DAMAGE , AND HAS BEEN SLEEPING ROUGH WITHIN.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | LLANYMAWDDWY | caller reporting damage to the collection table in the porch which had envelope hole at the top for money at the entrance of the church. This has been smashed with fire extinguisher caller has got photos of the damage , There will have not been much money in the table box as it had been emptied previously possible £5 or £10 in change in it. |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | BUCKLEY      | Informant reporting the theft of his parents headstone from their grave.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | LLANGEFNI  | Four youths have gained entry to a chapel by forcing open a door at the rear of the premises.                                                                                                                      |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | COLWYN BAY | Offender unknown has removed a picnic bench from the grounds of the church.                                                                                                                                        |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | PRESTATYN  | Ip report that she placed an ornament on her Mothers grave approx 3 weeks ago, the ip attended the grave and discovered that the ornament had been stolen.                                                         |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | CONWY      | OVER THE SPACE OF A WEEK, AN UNKNOWN OFFENDER HAS STOLEN A LANTERN FROM THE WALL OF THE LOC.                                                                                                                       |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | WREXHAM    | Uk offender has taken a small amount of lead from the roof at the rear of the premises.                                                                                                                            |
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | LLANDUDNO  | Unknown offender has gained entry to building by smashing small window. Once inside offender has urinated on the floor. Point of egress believed as point of entry.                                                |
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | BANGOR     | IP reporting that four youths have broken into the location.                                                                                                                                                       |
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | BANGOR     | OFFENDER UNKNOWN HAS ENTERED LOCATION BY CAUSING DAMGE TO TWO REAR DOORS AT LOCATION . IT IS UNKNOWN IF ANYTHING HAS BEEN STOLEN                                                                                   |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | LLANDUDNO  | The IP's brother has been attending the location and removing flowers and pots from their parents' graves.                                                                                                         |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | CAERNARFON | Unknown suspects have attended the location on several occasions in the last few months and broken flower heads which had been placed onto the grave and also removed wreaths and replaced them with plastic ones. |

|      |                                   |                 |                           |            |                                                                                                                                         |
|------|-----------------------------------|-----------------|---------------------------|------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | COLWYN BAY | Disclosed during related incident that unknown person has forced the door open to location and is believed to have been inside.         |
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | HOLYWELL   | UNKNOWN OFFENDER HAS GAINED ENTRY BY FORCING DOOR BY UNKNOWN MEANS AND HAS CAUSED UNSPECIFIED DAMAGE WITHIN.                            |
| 2020 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | BANGOR     | Offenders unknown have on two occasions removed the NO BIKES sign from the LOC                                                          |
| 2020 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | LLANDUDNO  | UNKNOWN OFFENDER HAS GAINED ENTRY BY BREAKING TOILET WINDOW BY UNKNOWN MEANS, BUT DOES NOT APPEAR TO HAVE STOLEN ANY ITEMS FROM WITHIN. |
| 2021 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | TY CROES   | UNKNOWN PERSONS HAVE ENTERED BUILDING (CHURCH) AND DAMAGED DONATIONS BOX STEALING CONTENTS 3 TIMES.                                     |
| 2021 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | ANGLESEY   | UNKNOWN PERSON OR PERSONS HAVE ENTERED CHURCH AND CAUSED DAMAGE TO DONATON BOX STEALING CONTENTS.                                       |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | LLECHWEDD  | INFORMANT WISHES TO REPORT THE THEFT OF LEAD FROM THE CHURCH ROOF. HAPPENED BETWEEN NOVEMBER AND NOW                                    |
| 2021 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | LLANRWST   | Unknown offender/s have smashed windows at the location. There is a communion plate missing from the cupboard                           |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | WREXHAM    | UNKNOWN OFFENDER.S HAVE ATTENDED AT LOCATION AND STOLEN 2 FRENCH BATHS FROM OPEN AREA SURROUNDING CHAPEL.                               |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | MOLD     | Inft works at location and has found out unknown person(s) have stolen a portaloo on site the porta loo belongs to Waterloo in Rhuddlan.                                                                                                                               |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | MOLD     | caller reporting on behalf of her partner that her partner has put items on her aunties grave and within a week they have been stolen.                                                                                                                                 |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | WREXHAM  | Inft is minsiter of chruch and is reporting unknown person has the electric mains cut off fuse from location.                                                                                                                                                          |
| 2021 | Burglary – Business and community | Public/open place | Churchyard                | LLANFAIR | person reporting two unknown people have been seen kicking a door on the shed next to the chapel opposite they have managed to break the lock door is insecure - person reporting has been to tell them to leave they have but they have returned a few minutes later. |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | RUTHIN   | UNKNOWN OFFENDERS HAVE STOLEN A GRAVE STONE                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | MOLD     | Informant reporting that two signs have been stolen from the location.                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Street/road               | MOLD     | 3RD party Informant reporting that two signs have been stolen from the location. one being his sign the other being property of the church as such this second occurrece record for and on behalf of the church                                                        |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | WREXHAM  | UNKNOWN OFFENDERS HAVE REMOVED AUTOMATIC LIGHT DETECTOR AT THE SIDE OF THE VESTRY DOOR. A CABLE HAS BEEN CUT AND LIGHT AND FITTINGS CUT OFF.                                                                                                                           |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | WREXHAM  | Unknown offender has stolen fuse unit from fuse box located on external wall of the church. (similar occurrence several weeks ago, linked on related tab)                                                                                                              |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       |                   |                           | BETHESDA | Person reporting theft of his baptised card which he received 2007 by church - ip last saw it 5 years ago and kept it in a safe place - ip is adamant it has been stolen.                                                                                              |

|      |                                   |                 |                           |             |                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|------|-----------------------------------|-----------------|---------------------------|-------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2021 | Burglary – Business and community | Commercial      | Other (commercial)        | WREXHAM     | Caller reporting that youths have gained entry into a chapel at location. They have also been damaging an old van that is parked up outside the Chapel (additional occurrence)       |
| 2021 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | WREXHAM     | CELLAR DOOR LOCK HAS BEEN FORCED AT OFFENCE LOCATION, UNKNOWN IF ENTRY GAINED                                                                                                        |
| 2021 | Other Theft                       | Commercial      | Building site             | BANGOR      | Offenders seen on roof of Chapel believed to be stealing lead from the roof, lights also seen to be on within the building and suspected of having entered.                          |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | TYN-Y-GONGL | Unknown person has gained access into the chapel - point of entry unknown, no damage but items left inside.                                                                          |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | PENMAENMAWR | unknown offenders have attended at location and have gained entry into clock tower and caused damage within.                                                                         |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | WREXHAM     | Unknown group of youths have entered the building and removed items before running off.                                                                                              |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | LLANGFNI    | UNKNOWN OFFENDER.S HAVE ATTENDED AT LOCATION AND REMOVED OLD CHAPEL GATE                                                                                                             |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community |                 |                           | CAERNARFON  | UNKNOWN OFFENDERS HAVE BROKEN INTO AN OLD DISUSED CHAPEL.                                                                                                                            |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Dwelling        | Outbuilding - Other       | COLWYN BAY  | OFFENDERS ENTERED DISUSED UNSAFE DERELICT CHURCH BUILDING. ON POLICE ATTENDANCE EIGHT YOUTHS WERE FOUND INSIDE THE PROPERTY HAVING GAINED ENTRY THROUGH A SIDE DOOR, PANELS REMOVED. |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|-------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community |                   |                           | PWLLHELI    | Unidentified offender/s damaged door of disused chapel in order to gain entry. Nothing reported stolen.                                                                                                                              |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | LLANGOLLEN  | Unknown offender/s are opening the main door to the church, no damage and no theft.                                                                                                                                                  |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community |                   |                           | Y FELINHELI | Informant reporting a church broken into, windows and doors smashed and crosses stolen                                                                                                                                               |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | LLANDUDNO   | Unknown offender/s have stolen items from a grave.                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Community centre          | LLANGERNYW  | Caller has made contact with NWP wishing to report unknown persons have broken into the church.                                                                                                                                      |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | HARLECH     | UNKNOWN OFFENDER(S) HAVE ENTERED CHURCH BUILDING AND TRIED TO ENTER A LOCKED ROOM CAUSING DAMAGE TO THE LOCK. ITEMS WERE STREWN ABOUT THE CHURCH AND A HAMMER AND SPANNER HAD BEEN LEFT. ALSO A CIGARETTE BUTT IN THE CHARITY PLATE. |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | PENRHYN BAY | Person reporting two males have been seen inside location have broken the frame of the window and gained access                                                                                                                      |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | CAERNARFON  | Known offender has stolen a cross from the church. He has also been throwing items at cars (no mention of damage)                                                                                                                    |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | RHOS ON SEA      | Person(s) have gained entry to a church outside of opening hours by climbing through a window, damaging the window. Having entered, the youths stole a sum of cash.                                                  |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | PRESTATYN        | Entry has been gained to the church community hall . There is evidence of the suspects using the facility and damage caused to a door . There was a pool of water which suggests entry may have been gained via roof |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | HOLYHEAD         | A young male has entered a church hall which was being used at the time by a choir. He then picked up a fire extinguisher and sprayed it at a member of the choir.                                                   |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | WREXHAM          | Unknown suspect(s) have attended the location and removed stones from the wall by the graveyard.                                                                                                                     |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | COLWYN BAY       | U/K SUSPECT HAS TAKEN CANDLES FROM THE CHURCH                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | PENRHYNDEUDRAETH | Inf reporting that the church's donation box has been broken into and cash taken.                                                                                                                                    |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community |                   |                           | CAERNARFON       | UNKNOWN OFFENDERS HAVE BROKEN INTO A DERELICT CHAPEL.                                                                                                                                                                |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | COLWYN BAY       | Unknown offender/s have stolen items from the foodbank and thrown them in the church yard.                                                                                                                           |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | DEINIOLLEN       | Glass smashed in rear door to gain entry, inside door forced possibly with screwdriver or similar but there is nothing inside to steal.                                                                              |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | LLANDUDNO        | Caller reporting that sometime in the last two months two projectors have been stolen from within the church.                                                                                                        |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | MOLD             | Informant reporting that all the lead has been stolen from the roof at the location. The lead has been taken from the back of the church by the vestry.                                                              |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |            |                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | CAERNARFON | A wedding invitation has been stolen from a grave stone at the location.                                                                                                                |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | BAGILLT    | long aluminium ramp has been stolen from inside the church by u/k suspect                                                                                                               |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | PRESTATYN  | Offender(s) unknown have forced entry to the Church hall by unknown means and caused considerable damage.                                                                               |
| 2022 | Burglary – Business and community |                   |                           | PRESTATYN  | Offender(s) unknown have forced entry to the Church hall by unknown means and caused considerable damage.                                                                               |
| 2022 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | RHYL       | INFT REPORTING THAT TWO MALES HAVE STOLEN 2 BIN BAGS OF TOYS AND SELECTION BOXES                                                                                                        |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | SHOTTON    | Caller reporting that someone has broken into the office and have stolen the laptop from location.                                                                                      |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | WREXHAM    | Report that offenders have gained entry to church by smashing back window, property taken from within. Egress believed as entry.                                                        |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | CAERNARFON | A DE FIB HAS BEEN TAKEN FROM ABOVE LOCATION                                                                                                                                             |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | FLINT      | IP reporting that unknown female has stolen her purse.IP was at church when homeless female has entered and taken the purse belonging to the IP with bank cards and cash within |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | FLINT      | FEMALE SUSPECT HAS TAKEN IPs PURSE FROM HER BAG AND HAS GONE TO LEAVE HOWEVER THE IP HAS CAUGHT HER AND TOLD HER TO GIVE HER HER PURSE BACK.                                            |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | LLANERCHYMED D | Caller reporting damage caused at the location / possible break in. Unknown offenders have attended at the location and have smashed a window and have moved the bier, however have failed to get it through the window. |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | RHOS ON SEA    | Caller reporting someone has broken into the sheds at the church and has stolen three lawn mowers.                                                                                                                       |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | BANGOR         | Infnt reporting theft of medication left bag near Catherdal in Bangor.                                                                                                                                                   |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | CAERGWRLE      | UNKNOWN PERSON HAVE BROKEN INTO THE CHAPEL AT THE OFFENCE LOCATION                                                                                                                                                       |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | PWLLHELI       | Reverend attends at police station to report that a group of youths have forced entry to the Chapel at location and caused damage to property inside..                                                                   |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | WREXHAM        | Caller reporting the theft of personal documents from location                                                                                                                                                           |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Commercial        | Car park (open air)       | KINMEL BAY     | Unknown offender has removed the victims briefcase from the church grounds after it was left there in error                                                                                                              |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | CONNAHS QUAY   | INFORMANT REPORTED THAT UNKNOWN OFFENDER(S) HAVE GAINED ENTRY INTO CHURCH BY SMASHING A WINDOW AND HAVE STOLEN PROPERTY FROM WITHIN.                                                                                     |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | FLINT          | INFT REPORTING THAT SOMEBODY KEEPS STEALING STUFF OFF OF HIS DADS GRAVE THEY ALWAYS PUT FLOWERS, CANDLES, PLAQUES, WHEN THEY GO BACK THEY ARE ALWAYS GONE THEY BELIEVE IT IS THE INFT STEP SISTER NATALIE GATE BROWN     |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |              |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|--------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | DEESIDE      | Caller reportig that a window has been smashes and entry has been gained in the location. Caller states they know someone has been in as a light has been left onand boxes and papers have been moved about. |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | RHYL         | Report of theft of scaffolding                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | COLWYN BAY   | Informant reports unknown suspect(s) have entered the outbuilding at the location, sometime overnight, and have taken a number of cleaning items.                                                            |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       |                   |                           | PRESTATYN    | UNKNOWN OFFENDER HAS ENTERED CHURCH AND STOLE THEIR DIGITAL SLR CAMERA WHICH STREAMS THEIR SERVICES                                                                                                          |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public/open place | Churchyard                | BETWS-Y-COED | Unknown suspect(s) have forced entry to a shed at the location and stolen a lawnmower from inside.                                                                                                           |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | SHOTTON      | Request for theft occurrence, no further information at the time of recording.                                                                                                                               |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | WREXHAM      | Informant saying that the building was broken into                                                                                                                                                           |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | LLANBERIS    | INFORMANT REPORTS ACCESS BEING GAINED TO AN EMPTY RECTORY BUILDING, WINDOWS DAMAGED IN THE PROCESS.                                                                                                          |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | WREXHAM      | Unknown suspect(s) have forced entry into a vacant building and caused damage internally.                                                                                                                    |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2023 | Other Theft                       |                   |                           | DOLGELLAU     | An unknown male has stolen a brass cross from the church. Witnessed have seen the male with the item in the town center.                                                                                           |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | PENMAENMAWR   | Report that offenders have forced entry to unoccupied building via basement door.                                                                                                                                  |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | CAERNARFON    | Unknown suspect(s) have gained entry into the location and caused damage to the electrics and lit fires inside.                                                                                                    |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community |                   |                           | PARC Y FAENOL | CALLER REPORTING THAT SHE WAS WALKING BY LOCATION AND NOTED THAT THE LOCK ON A CHAPEL DOOR HAD BEEN BROKEN OFF UNKNOWN IF ANYTHING HAS BEEN STOLEN.                                                                |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | COLWYN BAY    | Unknown suspect(s) have attended the location and taken four hanging baskets which were hanging outside the church.                                                                                                |
| 2023 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | HOLYWELL      | YOUTHS HAVE ENTERED CHAPEL AND HAVE SMASHED A WINDOW FROM INSIDE.                                                                                                                                                  |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | LLANGYBI      | THEFT OF MARBLE POT FROM A GRAVESIDE.                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | BANGOR        | Allegations of fraud (and theft) by officials of the Church of Wales over the selling of their redundant properties and the fixture and fittings contained within St Davids Church and potentially other Churches. |
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | WREXHAM       | IP WORKS IN THE CHURCH CAFE, HAS PALCED HANDBAG DOWN AND LEFT INSECURE. PERSONS UNKNOWN HAVE TAKEN HANDBAG. NOTHING OF VALUE INSIDE                                                                                |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2023 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | RHYL       | IP reporting theft of a purse which was inside her handbag, whilst at Church.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 2024 | Other Theft                       | Public/open place | Churchyard                | ABERGELE   | Informant reporting a section of railings are missing from the church wall.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | CAERNARFON | Report that offenders have gained entry to premises and caused damage within.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | LLANDUDNO  | Inftr reporting the Church had been having issues lately with a group. Asked them to take their belongings and leave. It would appear they have emptied the Church of all its furniture, cutlery and anything of value.                                                                                              |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Commercial        | Building site             | COLWYN BAY | CALLER HAS REPORTED THAT, CHURCH HAS BEEN BROKEN INTO AND TOOLS HAVE BEEN TAKEN FROM THE LOC.                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Dwelling          | Other (dwelling)          | GLASINFRYN | Witness reports observing 2 males wearing balaclavas pushing a wheel barrow at location. Police attend and find a wheel barrow containing power tools secreted in undergrowth. A check of the area reveals a renovated former church building currently under renovation with tools scattered all over the interior. |
| 2024 | Other Theft                       | Commercial        | Office                    | BAGILLT    | Theft of church bell valued between £1000- 2000 from outside business property.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community |                   |                           | WREXHAM    | SUSPECT HAS SMASHED A WINDOW IN THE BACK OF THE CHURCH WHICH LEADS INTO A TOILET. THEY HAVE THEN ENTERED THE BUILDING AND HAVE STUFFED THE TOILET WITH PAPER CAUSING DAMAGE.                                                                                                                                         |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community |                   |                           | LLANRWST   | Minor damage caused to cupboard doors inside church                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |

|      |                                   |                 |                           |          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|------|-----------------------------------|-----------------|---------------------------|----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2024 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | DENBIGH  | The inf reporting unknown person or persons have forced entry in to donations box stealing an unknown amount of donations.                                                                                                                                   |
| 2024 | Other Theft                       |                 |                           | FLINT    | Vicar reporting PRIDE banner removed from church railings at location.                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | BUCKLEY  | Unknown offender(s) have gained entry to the location via the main door before causing damage within. Unclear if anything has been stolen.                                                                                                                   |
| 2024 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | HOLYWELL | IP REPORTING THAT, SUSPECT HAS STOLEN SIGNS FROM OUTSIDE THEIR HOME.                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 2024 | Other Theft                       |                 |                           | WREXHAM  | Male and female have entered the church which was being used as a polling station for the election. They asked if they could charge their phones which was declined and use the bathroom. Male has stolen items from the storage cupboard near the bathroom. |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | WREXHAM  | Report that damage has been caused to door of premises and entry gained.                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | MOLD     | Unknown offenders have broken into church and stolen items within. They have also moved items and caused damage by fire.                                                                                                                                     |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | HOLYHEAD | UNKNOWN OFFENDER HAS GAINED ENTRY VIA UNSECURED DOOR - NO SIGN OF ANY FORCED ENTRY. UNKNOWN WHETHER OFFENDER HAS STOLEN ANY ITEMS/CAUSED ANY DAMAGE WITHIN.                                                                                                  |

|      |                                   |                 |                           |          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|------|-----------------------------------|-----------------|---------------------------|----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | MOLD     | Informant reporting that a plumber has been called out to the location due to a flood, and the cause of the flood had been malicious criminal damage inside the building. The key safe was open and the upstairs and downstairs has been flooded, the water pipe to the sink has been damaged. |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | HOLYHEAD | Unknown offenders have broke into an empty chapel which is currently up for sale by breaking a window.                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 2024 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | HOLYWELL | Informant reporting his phone has been stolen from the location.                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 2024 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | HOLYWELL | Victim reporting her purse has been stolen whilst at the location.                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 2024 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | MOSTYN   | Victim reporting her purse has been stolen whilst at the location.                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | WREXHAM  | BOTD suspected break in at St Mary's church, Merlin street, Johnstown                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | RHYL     | Door to outbuilding damaged.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | RHYL     | The informant is reporting offenders unknown have entered the church, nothing appears to have been taken.                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | RHYL     | Caller reporting damage to the chapel sometime on the 12/13th of October suspects have force entry into the chapel and caused damage within                                                                                                                                                    |

|      |                                   |                 |                           |            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|------|-----------------------------------|-----------------|---------------------------|------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | WREXHAM    | Unknown offenders have broken into the church hall by unknown means.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 2024 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | HARLECH    | IP reporting a burglary, items have been stolen from the vestry which were closed off to the public.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 2024 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | PENYMYNYDD | Informant reporting damage to the oil tank at the location.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       | Medical         | Hospital                  | RHYL       | Hospital report it appears someone has attempted to steal the charity box in the hospital chapel. Just prior to discovering this, two suspicious persons had been escorted off the premises.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | COLWYN BAY | Report that suspects have stolen a PS4 and controller whilst at food bank                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | FLINT      | CALLER REPORTING THAT, CHAPEL HAS BEEN DAMAGED AND BROKEN INTO. APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN A UNTIDY SEARCH WHEREBY CUPBOARDSETC HAVE BEEN OPENED.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | WREXHAM    | Caller reporting female suspect has ran out of the location and has taken tools whilst workmen were on their break. Suspect jumped into a white van. It would appear that the workmen have been doing construction work at the location and had left their tools inside. Anauthorised access to the public at the time of the construction work going on the suspect appears to have entered the church as a trespasser and stolen a circular saw. |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | COLWYN BAY | IP REPORTING THAT, THERE HAS BEEN A BREAK IN AT THE CHURCH.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |

|      |                                   |                 |                           |                    |                                                                                                                                                                  |
|------|-----------------------------------|-----------------|---------------------------|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | LLANDUDNO JUNCTION | IP REPORTING THAT, THERE HAS BEEN A BREAK IN AT THE CHURCH.                                                                                                      |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | WREXHAM            | The back door to the hall has been forced open and the lock and one of the panels damaged. Nothing in the hall appears to be stolen or damaged.                  |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | WREXHAM            | Lock broken off front door of church at location and entry effected. Fridge entered and a bottle of milk removed and found outside.                              |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community |                 |                           | WREXHAM            | Lock broken off front door of church at location and entry effected. Fridge entered and a bottle of milk removed and found outside.                              |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       | Leisure         | Leisure/swimming centre   | WREXHAM            | Informant is reporting that his Air Pods case has been taken whilst he was at a gym in Wrexham and they are currently tracking to an address in Whitchurch       |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | COLWYN BAY         | INFT REPORTING THAT YOUTHS HAVE BEEN FOUND WITHIN THE CHURCH BUILDING. INFT LATER DISCOVERED THAT A KEYBOARD WAS MISSING FROM THE LOCATION.                      |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | BANGOR             | IP REPORTS A FEMALE HAVING ENTERED THE LOCATION AND THEN ACCESS INTO A PRIVATE PART OF THE CHURCH AND ORGAN LOFT WHERE DAMAGE HAS BEEN CAUSED TO THE ORGAN TUBES |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       | Public building | Church/religious building | CONWY              | STB caller's camera has been stolen having left it in the back room of the church under his coat.                                                                |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | RHOESMOR           | Offender has gained access into the church and has entered the shop area where money from the float has been stolen.                                             |

|      |                                   |                   |                           |            |                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public/open place | Town centre               | RHYL       | REPORTS OF A BREAK IN AT A CHURCH                                                                                                                                                |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       | Education         | Other (education)         | COLWYN BAY | Unknown male offender stole £5 from a collection bag located within the church.                                                                                                  |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       |                   |                           | COLWYN BAY | Unknown male offender stole £5 from a collection bag located within the church.                                                                                                  |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | RHYL       | UK OFFENDERS HAVE GAINED ENTRY INTO LOCATION BY FORCING DOOR. FOUND WITHIN BY INFT                                                                                               |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | BARMOUTH   | Inft reporting that the lock to the donation box at the church has been stolen along with a £5 note the inft said he left in situ                                                |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | PRESTATYN  | Unknown offenders have forced entry into Church via fire exit doors at the rear, damaged internal door, attempted to gain entry into the office and stole goods from the fridge. |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | RHYL       | Unknown offenders have forced entry into Church via fire exit doors at the rear, damaged internal door, attempted to gain entry into the office and stole goods from the fridge. |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | DOLGELLAU  | Theft of candles and lighter from within the church by unknown male                                                                                                              |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building   | Church/religious building | HOLYWELL   | INFT REPORTS SEEING A GROUP OF 3 YOUTHS BREAK INTO A DERELICT CHAPEL AT THE LOCATION.                                                                                            |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       | Public building   | Church/religious building | LLANDUDNO  | Unknown suspect(s) have attempted to force open the church donation box at the location.                                                                                         |

|      |                                   |                 |                           |             |                                                                                                                                                   |
|------|-----------------------------------|-----------------|---------------------------|-------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | PENMAENMAWR | Informant reports that she has witnessed a number of youths entering the premises via broken windows and can hear them smashing up items inside.  |
| 2025 | Other Theft                       |                 |                           | COLWYN BAY  | Known male has entered the church and has stolen a pair of reading glasses. The male is a repeat offender having stolen from the location before. |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | CAERGWRLE   | INFT REPORTING UK OFFENDERS HAVE SMASHED WINDOWS IN ORDER TO GAIN ENTRY AND RANSACKED WITHIN UK IF ANYTHING STOLEN                                |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | PRESTATYN   | Sometime overnight unknown offenders have stolen property from within the church.                                                                 |
| 2025 | Burglary – Business and community | Public building | Church/religious building | BAGILLT     | Unknown suspects have forced entry into a container at the location and stolen tools from within.                                                 |