2025/425 - Domestic abuse incidents

In response to your recent request for information regarding;

1. Are all your police officers who attend domestic abuse incidents (crime scenes) trained about coercive control?

All officers have received training on coercive control.

2. What training courses that police officers are mandated to attend is coercive control covered in?

Every cohort within initial PC training receives a lesson on coercive control.

3. Pets can be killed, harmed or threatened within domestic abuse and are often barriers for survivors leaving an abusive relationship. Does all of your coercive control training consider this aspect?

"harm or threats made to pets" is not covered within the coercive control lesson.
