2026/254 - Free speech

In response to your recent request for information regarding;

What training is given to recruits on free speech in principle and practice.

Human Rights training is delivered in initial training, free speech is discussed as part of the lesson if the issue of free speech is raised in discussions, but no specific content on free speech. Whilst in initial training officers are trained to level 3 in PSU tactics, where Human Rights legislation is taught.

Who provides this training?

As above no specific training on free speech provided. However, Human Rights inputs are given by trainers in initial training and public order training.

Please supply me with all training materials.

We do not hold training material relating to free speech.
