2026/749 - Support for LGBT+

In response to your recent request for information regarding;

Tell me what the force now does to support LGBT+ people and their confidence in reporting crime. For example, whether it has LGBT+ liaison arrangements, takes part in Pride, or flies the rainbow flag during Pride Month.

- The Force has three designated Diversity Officers who provide support and advice in the investigation of hate crime.
- The Diversity Officers work closely with LGBT+ communities across North Wales to encourage the reporting of hate crime and to strengthen confidence in policing services.
- The Force also facilitates a Police and Community LGBT+ Group, which supports engagement with LGBT+ communities and promotes the reporting of hate crime, helping to ensure that victims have the confidence to come forward.
