Grand Total	173

We process traffic offence reports, when someone is stopped at the roadside for an offence and given a ticket (TOR) it is a notice of intended prosecution which they review and sign.

They are given a conditional offer of a fine (and points or to complete a course depending on the offence and other factors). If they comply with the conditional offer then they are accepting the fixed penalty without the need to go to court. If they fail to comply then it is automatically progressed for the Courts to deal with (generally incurring extra costs). They can also request to contest the matter in court.

Our information is set up and searchable for our policing purposes. The Years 2019 – 2021 have unfortunately been weeded from the system.

Below are the offences that have proceeded to Court for either not complying with the Conditional Offer or requesting to go to Court.

To obtain the information in relation to the court result would involve manually reviewing each record on our force system. The cost of providing you with the information is above the amount to which we are legally required to respond i.e. the cost of retrieving the information exceeds the 'appropriate level' as stated in the Freedom of Information (FOI) Fees and Appropriate Limit regulations 2004.

Therefore, in accordance with the FOI Act 2000 the information you have requested is exempt under Section 12 (1), and this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under section 17 (5) of the legislation.

Although excess cost removed the forces obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.
